Pro Energy Focuses Efforts in Texas after Florida Acquisition

Houston, Texas – August 1, 2013 – Pro Energy Partners (Pro Energy) has announced that Supreme Energy, Inc. (Supreme Energy) has recently acquired its Florida natural gas business. Pro Energy first entered into the Florida marketplace in 2000, developing a dynamic end-user portfolio that has since grown in excess of 200% annually. The acquisition allows Pro Energy the opportunity to concentrate efforts in Texas and other growing markets through strategic gas marketing and management.

“We are excited to start this new chapter and concentrate on growing another thriving gas marketing business,” said Jarrett Rogers, President of Pro Energy. “I am very proud of our Florida business and feel that Supreme Energy can take this portfolio to another level. We want to thank our customers, employees, and agents.”

Pro Energy is an energy consulting firm based in Houston, Texas serving various expanding markets in Ark., La., N.C., S.C., Ga., Okla., Tenn., and Texas. Founded in 2000, Pro Energy specializes in assisting commercial and industrial gas customers with the purchase and transportation of natural gas supply.
